

Employee Accommodations Appeal Form

Per 5-004 Policy: Accessibility and Reasonable Accommodation for Individuals with Disabilities Policy (“ADA Policy”), the University of Florida (“UF”) has adopted the following procedure to address employee appeals specific to accommodations.

Employees should recognize that there are two (2) procedures to address disability-related complaints, depending on the nature of the complaint. Two (2) distinct policies guide the processes noted below:

ACCOMMODATION: The ADA Policy provides that UF shall have an interactive process for employee accommodations. This includes establishing a grievance procedure to address employee concerns regarding accommodation determinations. Through this grievance process, an employee may seek a review of decisions related to a denial of a requested accommodation, failure to provide an approved accommodation, or access-related concerns at UF.

DISCRIMINATION: This procedure addresses employee complaints alleging harassment or other forms of discrimination based on disability (unrelated to access or accommodation) and all types of employee and third-party disability discrimination complaints. These complaints should be filed directly with the Office of Employee Relations (not through the ADA Office). Discrimination complaints may be emailed to the Office of Employee Relations. Employees may also contact the Office of Employee Relations via phone at (352) 392-1072 or in-person by scheduled appointment.
